BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Open Days have been scheduled in Haifa, twice a year, at times where expected attendance is at the highest to mark the listing of the Bahá'í Shrines in Haifa and Akko on the UNESCO World Heritage List in 2008.

Guests are warmly welcomed, and guides who speak Arabic, English, Hebrew, and Russian are available at various points to answer questions and provide general information. Visitors also have the opportunity to watch an informational film on the Bahá'í Faith, in the Visitors Centre in Akko and Haifa.
